5/4/76

Dear Emory,

Many thanks for your letters of 4/24, misaddressed at Route 7, and the one whose date I have forgotten because I gave it to Lesar yesterday. I had not then opened the earlier envelope. I'll give him that letter tomorrow when we are in court on the suit for the withheld King data. (Have you seen the benefit from this one?)

These are helpful.

We are jammed on time, with two district court cases almost coinciding in time and the spectro appeal about a month off.

He was here yesterday with the revision of an affidavit in C.A. 75-1448, for the still-withheld executive session transcripts.

The time these cases require delays my writing seriously. I'm ~~x~~ 2/3 of the way through a draft on a new King book and haven't been able to get back to actual writing on it for weeks.

Thanks again and best,
